The petition for withdrawal of the holding of abandonment, filed April 28, 2005, is being treated as a petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment under 37 CFR 1.181.

The petition is GRANTED.

A review of the application reveals that a Notice of Abandonment was mailed to the Applicant on April 8, 2005. The notice incorrectly indicated that the instant application was being held abandoned for failure to respond to the Restriction Requirement mailed on May 26, 2004. Applicant timely filed an extension of time for five (5) months, an election and remarks and bearing a central fax receipt date of November 26, 2004, wherein the election, remarks and extension of time are currently located in the file.

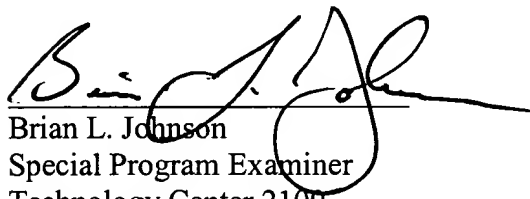

The amount indicated by Applicant authorized to be charged to Deposit Account No. 19-0733 for the extension of time for five (5) months, necessary to timely respond to the Restriction Requirement, is indicated to be $1040.00 (small entity). The Office charged the amount of $1020.00 for the extension of time on November 26, 2004. The correct amount to be charged on November 26, 2004 was in fact $1040.00. Therefore, the difference between the amount charged by the Office and that which was due at the time of the response is $20.00. This amount will be charged to deposit account No. 19-0733.

In view of these facts, the abandonment of the application was clearly in error and has been VACATED. The Office regrets any inconvenience this may have caused.

The application is being forwarded to the Supervisory Legal Instruments Examiner with instructions to charge $20.00 to Deposit Account No. 19-0733 (for the five months extension of time as indicated above) and to REFUND the revival fee of $1,500.00, charged on August 18, 2005.

Note, in response to the election filed November 26, 2004, a Non-Final Office action was mailed to Applicant on September 13, 2005. The shortened statutory period for response expired on December 13, 2005 and the statutory period for response expires on March 13, 2006 (with a three-months extension of time).
